The Bicentennial National Trail is “a living trail” and as such conditions and access details are continually changing. Some of the information in the ‘update notes’ may have been provided by trekkers and may not have been verified on the ground by the section coordinator or a BNT Board member. Update notes are only a guide and situations can change from day to day, therefore you must try to contact the section coordinator and not rely solely on the guidebook or the update notes. You travel at your own risk as travelling on the BNT is regarded as self-reliant trekking.

Could all trekkers please send any information on track changes to the BNT office so the update notes can be as current as possible. Your notes need to be clear and concise.
Please contact your local coordinator prior to trekking to advise of approximate travel dates and to obtain an update on local conditions.

Guide Book 6 Section Coordinators (2017):
Map 1 Blackbutt to Emu Creek Bruce & Beril Murray
Maps 2-5 Emu Creek to Ravensbourne: Toni Tatham
Maps 6-7 Ravensbourne to Withcott: Lynne Anderson.
Maps 8-18 Withcott to Killarney: John Dwyer

Guidebook 6 Edition 2 (1991) is currently out of print and has been for some years now. Due to some major changes along the trail, it has become impracticable to update this Edition 2 guidebook which should not be used by trekkers.
BNT members can now purchase a new electronic version, Guidebook 6 Draft Edition 3 through the BNT office, forwarded as two PDF Files, North to South, Blackbutt to Killarney and South to North, Killarney to Blackbutt.
This draft edition is regularly updated so that subsequent to their initial purchase of the Guidebook 6 Trail Notes, members are entitled to request a further more recent copy as an update.

Please send in stories of your experiences for “Tracks” magazine. Remember it is “your trail” and other people are inspired by your trek. Please support the BNT by retaining your membership.
Can you also notify the office or section coordinator of any problems you may encounter, thank you and happy trekking.
